

Now try these

Make up six silly sentences using words from the sacks.
One has been done to help you.

Yesterday a spotty dinosaur from Egypt suddenly attacked me.

Nouns

dinosaur monkey crocodile teacher jelly chips cave bike Egypt shed park bed

Adjectives

spotty wobbly fierce beautiful strange sad tiny hungry sharp slimy smelly dark

Verbs

ate sang grabbed attacked was came hid hugged crawled scraped stole screamed

Adverbs

yesterday suddenly politely noisily angrily everywhere often once silently greedily always there

Pronouns

I you he she it we they me him us them itself

Prepositions

in under at off near through over by around with from on Practise your punctuation

1. Copy this limerick. Punctuate it correctly.

there was a young man from darjeeling who travelled by bus into ealing a man near the door said dont sit on the floor so he carefully sat on the ceiling

2. Write a list of words from the limerick for each part of speech.

- a) nouns b) adjectives c) verbs
d) adverbs e) pronouns f) prepositions

